

Legacy Society Member's Information Form

So You've Completed Your Bequest...

We are truly grateful and so excited that you have decided to support survivors of domestic violence and their children through your will. This form of support ensures that survivors are taken care of long after you are gone and can be used as a powerful way to not only amplify the importance of FVAP's mission to provide effective and free appellate representation to low-income survivors, but to also share why this mission matters to you.

Sharing why supporting survivors and their kids is important to you and your legacy means a lot because it can inspire others to support survivors, too. We hope that you will let us celebrate your legacy and show our gratitude by allowing us to share the wonderful news of your membership.

We would like to celebrate your choice to support survivors through your will. Please let us know how we can thank you.
